Challenge Student Dies Laughing! Twice!

In Social Studies on January 26th, 2026, Khiana R. Sisneros had a heart attack, and was pronounced dead, after laughing for 5 minutes straight. It seems to be contagious as several other people's faces were red and they were experiencing similar symptoms. Thankfully there was only one casualty, of course being the late Ms. Sisneros. Witnesses said it had to do with the "return of the rice crispy treats," but can not explain what was so funny; one witness, Quincy Johnson, has spoken on the situation, saying: "Another one bites the dust!"

On January 29, 2026, the disease has struck again. Both Khiana and Olive McRobbie have died. Khiana had a sudden flare up, from which she transmitted it to Olive.

Political Fractures in the Hot Chocolate Death Squad

The Hot Chocolate Death Squad has been at a low level war with the Eggnog Enjoyers since the end of November. The editors of the Newsletter have recently received classified information from a traitor to the Hot Chocolate cause. The agent, who wishes to remain anonymous for reasons of personal safety, has explained that the Eggnog Enjoyers have infiltrated the Squad. Challenge students, at this point, remain neutral on the issue.

Challenge Stocks Drop further due to Deportation Crisis

(Countries people were deported to will be to the right of name)

Challenge stocks drop because Remington (Italy), Marek (Czech Republic), Jacob (Ohio), All of the Redheads (Ireland) and Bennet+Zarian (Mars) were deported back to their respective countries, leaving the few Challenge members left to struggle for power. Hopefully this will only be temporary, or else, Challenge will rip itself apart efficiently and brutally.
